If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform your employment contract (e.g. we may not be able to pay you), or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the health and safety of our workers).

8. CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

9. HOW WE USE PARTICULARLY SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION

9.1 "Special categories" of particularly sensitive personal information require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal information. We may process special categories of personal information in the following circumstances:

- 9.1.1 in limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent;
- 9.1.2 where we need to carry out our legal obligations or exercise rights in relation to your employment with us and in line with our data protection policy;
- 9.1.3 where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring or in relation to our occupational pension scheme, and always in line with our internal employment policies.

9.2 Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public. We may also process such information about members or former members in the course of legitimate business activities with the appropriate safeguards.

10. OUR OBLIGATIONS AS AN EMPLOYER

10.1 We will use your particularly sensitive personal information in the following ways:

- 10.1.1 we will use information relating to absence, which may include sickness absence or family related leaves, to comply with employment and other laws;

11. DO WE NEED YOUR CONSENT?

We do not need your consent if we use special categories of your personal information to carry out our legal obligations or exercise specific rights in the field of employment law. However, in limited circumstances, we may approach you for your written consent to allow us to process certain particularly sensitive data. If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the information that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent. You should be aware that it is not a condition of your employment contract with us that you agree to any request for consent from us. However, it may put us in a position of having to make a decision about your employment without the full picture/information.

We do not need your consent where the purpose of the processing is to protect you or another person from harm or to protect your well-being and if we reasonably believe that you need care and support, are at risk of harm and are unable to protect yourself.

12. INFORMATION ABOUT CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

- 12.1 We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so and this will depend on your role with the business. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations as your employer.

- 12.3 We will only collect information about criminal convictions if it is appropriate given the nature of the role and where we are legally able to do so. Where appropriate, we will collect information about criminal convictions as part of the recruitment process or we may be notified of such information directly by you in the course of you working for us. We will use information about criminal convictions and offences to assess your suitability for the role (either on recruitment or for offences committed during employment).
